STIPULATION AND ~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER TO SET PRE-TRIAL AND TRIAL SCHEDULE
Re: Violation Numbers 6268751, 6268752

1733722

1 Defendant Alan Mei and the United States of America (collectively referred to as the
2 “Parties”), by and through their respective counsel, stipulate as follows:

- 3 1. This matter currently has a pre-trial conference set for September 13, 2021 and a trial
4 set for September 20, 2021.
- 5 2. Due to the unpredictability of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic and Defendant’s
6 desire to have an in-person trial, the Parties have met and conferred and have agreed to 7 a continuance.
- 8 3. The Parties therefore agree and stipulate to the following:
  - 9 a. The Parties respectfully request that the Court set the pre-trial conference
10 on January 24, 2022, or as soon thereafter as is convenient for the Court, with the trial one week
11 after that, assuming that the Court is holding in-person hearings and trials at that time.
  - 12 b. The Parties agree and stipulate to the following pretrial schedule:
    - 13 i. The Parties will complete production of all available discovery and 14 serve witness and exhibit lists 28 days before the pretrial conference;
    - 15 ii. The Parties’ will submit to the Court any motions in limine 14 days 16 before the pretrial conference;
    - 17 iii. The Parties’ will submit to the Court any replies to any motions in 18 limine 7 days before the pretrial conference;
    - 19 iv. The Parties will submit to the Court any pre-trial briefing and/or joint 20 pre-trial statements 7 days before the pretrial conference.
